YING GUAN

Teacher Educator | Registered ECE Teacher | PhD Candidate

Auckland, New Zealand | guanyinglsy@gmail.com | NZ Permanent Resident

zoegithub2024.github.io | Open to long-term work in New Zealand.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Teacher educator with more than 20 years of education experience across New Zealand, China and the United Kingdom. Recent NZTC experience includes teaching across five undergraduate and postgraduate Initial Teacher Education courses and visiting lecturer responsibilities in ECE practicum settings, alongside current assessment marking across seven ECE and education-related courses.

Combines centre-based ECE knowledge, academic-literacy support and English–Mandarin communication. Full-time PhD candidate in Education at the University of Canterbury, researching bilingual literacy practices in Chinese–New Zealand family homes.

TERTIARY TEACHING AND ASSESSMENT

Assessment Marker — ECE and Education Courses

New Zealand Tertiary College, Auckland | 2026–Present

• Apply course learning outcomes and assessment criteria to the evidence in learner submissions.

• Provide constructive written feedback on academic writing, reflective practice and professional understanding.

Lecturer and Visiting Lecturer — Initial Teacher Education

New Zealand Tertiary College, Auckland | 2025–2026

• Taught five undergraduate and postgraduate ITE courses, supporting adult and distance learners with course learning, assessment preparation and academic writing.

• Observed student teachers in ECE practicum settings and evaluated professional practice against course expectations.

• Provided developmental feedback and one-to-one guidance for multilingual and culturally diverse learners.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Registered Early Childhood Teacher

KinderCare Learning Centre, Christchurch | 2022–2025

• Applied Te Whāriki-informed practice with children, families, whānau and teaching colleagues.

• Created language-rich learning environments and supported wellbeing, belonging and early literacy through relationships and routines.

YING GUAN

Professional experience and research development

LANGUAGE, LITERACY AND INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

English and Chinese Language Teacher / Literacy Lead

High School Attached to Harbin Normal University, China | 2004–2020

• Taught English and academic literacy, including reading, writing, speaking, listening and examination preparation.

• Designed teaching programmes and resources; mentored colleagues and contributed to professional learning.

Mandarin Language Teacher and Teacher Trainer

Confucius Institute, London, United Kingdom | 2012–2013

• Taught language and literacy in multicultural community education settings and facilitated teacher development workshops.

EDUCATION AND RESEARCH

PhD in Education — Full-time candidate

University of Canterbury | Ongoing

Research: Bilingual Literacy Practices in Chinese–New Zealand Family Homes. Confirmation completed on 18 August 2026; full-time enrolment approved in August 2026.

Master of Teaching Early Childhood Education — Distinction

Toi Ohomai Institute of Technology | 2021

Bachelor of English Education

Harbin Normal University | 2004

CONFERENCE PRESENTATION

Guan, Y. (19 September 2026). Recognising bilingual literacy in family life: What might a family literacy perspective offer ECE? Early Childhood Futures: Sparking Joy in ECE, University of Waikato, Hamilton, New Zealand.

REGISTRATION, LANGUAGES AND TEACHING TOOLS

Registered with the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand; current Full Practising Certificate. Registration details available on request.

Mandarin: native speaker. English: professional proficiency.
Teaching platforms: Moodle, Zoom, Microsoft Teams and Microsoft 365.