

YING GUAN

Auckland, New Zealand | 020 419 74410 | guanyingsy@gmail.com

Teaching Council Registration: 412284 | Current Full Practising Certificate, Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand | NZ Permanent Resident

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Registered early childhood teacher and tertiary Initial Teacher Education academic with over twenty years of teaching experience across New Zealand, China, and the United Kingdom. Holds a Master of Early Childhood Education with Distinction and a current Full Practising Certificate with the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand.

Previous Lecturer and Visiting Lecturer at New Zealand Tertiary College, teaching across five Initial Teacher Education courses and supporting learners through course delivery, online guidance, assessment feedback, one-to-one academic support, and practicum-related teaching practice guidance. Current Assessment Marker across seven ECE and education-related courses.

Strong fit for Open Polytechnic's online and flexible ECE delivery, with experience supporting distance learners, providing timely criteria-based feedback, and evaluating learners' professional practice in ECE centre settings. Currently a part-time PhD candidate in Education at the University of Canterbury, researching digitally mediated bilingual literacy practices in Chinese-New Zealand family homes.

CORE CAPABILITIES

- | | |
|--|--|
| • Online and flexible tertiary teaching | • ECE centre-based practice evaluation |
| • Open Distance Flexible Learning-aligned support | • Observation of interactions with children and Associate Teachers |
| • Initial Teacher Education course delivery | • Te Whāriki-informed early childhood practice |
| • Academic guidance for adult and distance learners | • Te Tiriti-informed and culturally responsive teaching |
| • Assignment preparation and assessment support | • Supporting multilingual and diverse adult learners |
| • Assessment marking and criteria-based judgement | • Digital platforms: Moodle, Zoom, Teams, Microsoft 365 |
| • Constructive written feedback for learner progression | • Research-informed teaching and reflective practice |
| • Practicum support and Visiting Lecturer responsibilities | • English-Mandarin cross-cultural communication |

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Assessment Marker - ECE and Education Courses

New Zealand Tertiary College, Auckland | 2026-Present

- Mark assessments across seven ECE and education-related courses, applying assessment criteria and course learning outcomes consistently across varied learner submissions.
- Provide clear, constructive and professional written feedback to support learner improvement in academic writing, reflective practice, professional understanding and application of course concepts.
- Strengthen programme quality through fair, evidence-informed assessment judgement, feedback consistency and attention to learner progression in online and flexible learning contexts.

Lecturer and Visiting Lecturer - Initial Teacher Education

New Zealand Tertiary College, Auckland | 2025-2026

- Taught across five Initial Teacher Education courses at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, including three undergraduate courses and two postgraduate courses.
- Delivered course teaching and supported adult learners with assignment preparation, assessment expectations, reflective practice, academic writing and professional understanding.
- Provided online learner support through digital learning platforms, including responding to student questions and clarifying course and assessment requirements.
- Marked learner assessments and provided constructive, criteria-based feedback to support academic progress, professional reflection and improved learner outcomes.
- Provided one-to-one academic support for learners requiring additional guidance with academic literacy, assignment planning, professional language and course expectations.

- Undertook Visiting Lecturer responsibilities connected to teaching practice and practicum guidance across Initial Teacher Education courses.
- Supported learners in ECE centre settings by observing interactions with children and Associate Teachers, evaluating practice against course standards and providing practice-based feedback.
- Worked with international, multilingual and culturally diverse learners, using clear expectations, scaffolded learning and respectful relationships to build confidence and engagement.

Registered Early Childhood Teacher

KinderCare Learning Centre, Christchurch | 2022-2025

- Worked in a diverse ECE centre setting with children, families, whānau and teaching colleagues, applying Te Whāriki-informed practice in everyday teaching decisions.
- Created inclusive, language-rich learning environments that supported children's oral language, early literacy, wellbeing, belonging, communication and confidence.
- Built respectful relationships with families and colleagues to support children's learning, transitions, wellbeing and engagement.
- Developed practical insight into centre-based ECE expectations, which now informs tertiary teaching, learner feedback and professional practice assessment.

ESOL and High School English Teacher / Literacy Lead

High School Attached to Harbin Normal University, China | 2004-2020

- Taught English, academic literacy, reading, writing, speaking, listening and exam preparation to senior secondary learners.
- Designed teaching programmes, learning resources and assessment-informed learning activities, using learner evidence to adapt instruction and support progress.
- Mentored colleagues and contributed to curriculum development, teaching improvement and professional learning initiatives.
- Achieved strong learner outcomes, including supporting a student who achieved a provincial top score of 148/150 in English.

Language Teacher and Teacher Trainer

Southbank University / Confucius Institute, London, United Kingdom | 2012-2013

- Delivered language and literacy teaching in multicultural community education settings and facilitated teacher development workshops.
- Worked with learners and teachers from diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds.

EDUCATION

Part-time PhD Candidate in Education

University of Canterbury, New Zealand | Ongoing

Research focus: digitally mediated bilingual literacy practices in Chinese-New Zealand family homes, including language, identity, family interaction, multimodal resources and digital tools.

Master of Early Childhood Education, Distinction

Toi Ohomai Institute of Technology, New Zealand | 2021

Bachelor of English Education

Harbin Normal University, China | 2004

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATION

Current Full Practising Certificate, Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand | Registration Number: 412284

SELECTED PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

- Over twenty years of teaching experience across New Zealand, China and the United Kingdom.
- Previous Lecturer and Visiting Lecturer in Initial Teacher Education, teaching across five undergraduate and postgraduate courses and supporting practicum-related practice guidance.
- Current Assessment Marker across seven ECE and education-related courses.
- Practical ECE centre experience in Christchurch, supporting children, families and teaching teams.
- Part-time PhD candidate with research connected to bilingual literacy, family learning, digital tools and culturally responsive practice.
- First Prize, National English Teaching Competition, China; more than 30 regional and national awards for teaching practice and educational research.
- Co-authored approximately 15 English teaching and learning resource books.